Balanced Literacy in the 1st/2nd Grade Classroom

Interactive Read Aloud
Shared Reading & Performed Reading
Interactive Writing & Writing Aloud

September 30 & October 24, 2016

Why Attend:

Attend these sessions to build an understanding and facilitate implementation of three components of balanced literacy within 1st & 2nd grade classrooms: Interactive Read Aloud, Shared Reading & Performed Reading and Interactive Writing & Writing Aloud. This workshop will also address how each of these instructional settings support emergent, early and transitional readers and writers while moving them to higher levels of understanding of reading and writing processes. For more information about these components please visit our website: www.wisconsinpclcenter.org.

Objectives: Apprenticeship approach to learning, Socio-cognitive processes in teaching and learning, Zone of proximal development, Literacy continuum of learning, Grades 1 & 2 ELA CCSS, Promoting conscious awareness of literacy learning, Scheduling the literacy instructional block, Integrating instruction across instructional settings, Developing self-regulated learners & Teaching for transfer
